

NSPA Healthcare Security Summit 2016

Lessons Learned from the Act of Terror in San Bernardino, CA

Featured Speakers:

- Lt. David Green, San Bernardino Police Dept., CA
- Sgt. Eric Fyvie, Emergency Operations Manager, Terrorism Liaison Officer, CERT Coordinator, San Bernardino Police Dept., CA
- Danielle Ogaz, Senior EMS Specialist/HPP Coordinator, Inland Counties Emergency Medical Agency, CA

These individuals will share their experiences and lessons-learned from their response to the terrorist attacks on December 2, 2015

Additional topics include:

- Safety and Security Considerations for Hospitals and Healthcare Facilities
Rick Arrington, Crime Prevention Specialist, VA Dept. of Criminal Justice Services
- Cyber Security for the Healthcare Sector
Special Agent Keith Scott, FBI, Richmond Division
- Cyber Risk Management
Ed Winstead, Senior VP, Rutherford
- Suspicious Activity Reporting
Special Agent White
- Panel Discussion of Healthcare Security Topics
Facilitated by Pete Owen, DHS Protective Security Advisor, Office of Infrastructure Protection, Norfolk, VA

Register at www.nspa1.org/security

TARGET AUDIENCE: Law Enforcement, Public Safety/First Responders, Healthcare Security and Emergency Management, Healthcare IT, Emergency Department personnel, Public Health, Community Services Boards, Red Cross, Medical Reserve Corps, NSPA members and partners.

June 16, 2016

8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

$17 Cost to Attend

Lunch Provided

Holiday Inn Tanglewood

4468 Starkey Rd

Roanoke, VA 24018

